TEMPERAMENT TYPES IN THE FAMILY!!

HOME ASSIGNMENT

SUMMARY OF TODAY'S VIDEO

Temperament is not personality. Personality is learned, while temperament is God-given. Personality can be good or evil, but temperament is always good. Learning to work with its strengths and avoiding its potential weaknesses is the goal.

Understanding your child's temperament is helpful in helping them become the image of God they were intended to be.

Steve introduces the 5 temperament types and how they work in this video.

THIS WEEK

Read the attached form that introduces the temperaments and gives parental training tips and points out how each temperament reflects some important aspect of Yeshua.

Consider, going over this with your children and discussing what temperament types they think fits each person in the family.
