
FORBIDDEN KNOWLEDGE

- Man's knowledge of good and evil is tainted because it was acquired through theft.

Desire to “know” good instead of to “be” good

- True “good” resides in God alone. The sin of theft broke our relationship with Him.

Religious knowledge without spiritual relationship

- Thus man has a faulty understanding of good and evil. We tend to view them through a selfish perspective.

Evil masquerades as Good

