

REVIEW OF ROMANS 1-4

- The Gentile believers in Rome have great faith, but they must grow in obedience.
- The Jews, though obedient to Torah, must establish a foundation of faith.
- However, Gentiles without faith or Torah are still without excuse...
▪ ...and Jews with Torah and no faith are in even greater danger.
- Abraham's life is the pattern for the Gentiles. They are equally his children.